Inspection Problems We are the Solution

As a Licensed General Contractor, and Home Builder in Utah for over 32 years, Dan Maack (Owner Maack Property Investments, LLC.) understands the importance and comfort in knowing that the home your clients intend to purchase has no hidden defects. Your client's Home Inspection often uncover items that are minor or cosmetic, however, occasionally more serious problems are uncovered that are a little more challenging and need professional repair. We get it! With experience in both the building and selling of homes we understand the need for fast, reliable pricing and repair. As an Agent you understand these repairs major or minor, are paramount to the sale and must be completed to meet the contractual deadlines in the REPC. If your client's Home Inspection has uncovered problems that need a Solution, Call the Inspection Solution team today. We FIX what they find.

And remember "Appreciate" every day!
